

Scorpion⁴⁵¹ is sick

I'm pretty sure it's the flu.

Sorry about delaying the post, but hard to work when you can't see straight.

Will post on Friday.

If not dead.

MERRY CHRISTMAS
FROM TGW AND THE GLOW

Two orange cartoon dragons with blue eye masks and yellow striped chests are sitting at desks with computers. The dragon on the left is holding a pen and gesturing with its other hand. The dragon on the right is typing on a laptop. Both have speech bubbles.

Howdy folks!
Scorp here again!

I know, I know...
I can hear the sighs
of "awww, not a real page?"
already...

A cartoon dragon is shown from the chest up, gesturing with its hands. It has a speech bubble and a text box next to it.

I just needed a week for some R+R*
and to play catch-up on some stuff.

There's only so much one artist/nerd/scorpion dragon can do in a week after all. ☺ *recharging + recombining, of course

A cartoon dragon's tail with a blue band and a white tip.

See ya'll next Tuesday,
like usual!

Still recuperating and getting caught up from being sick last week,
(Wasn't actually the flu, but close.)
So no post this Tuesday.

TGW will be back next week when I'm fully recharged.

Howdy ya'll!

Scorp here!

Seeing as it's Christmas week and all, I hope y'all don't mind if I take it a bit easy this week

I figure if the guy from TwoKinds can do this sort of random intermission thing, so can I.

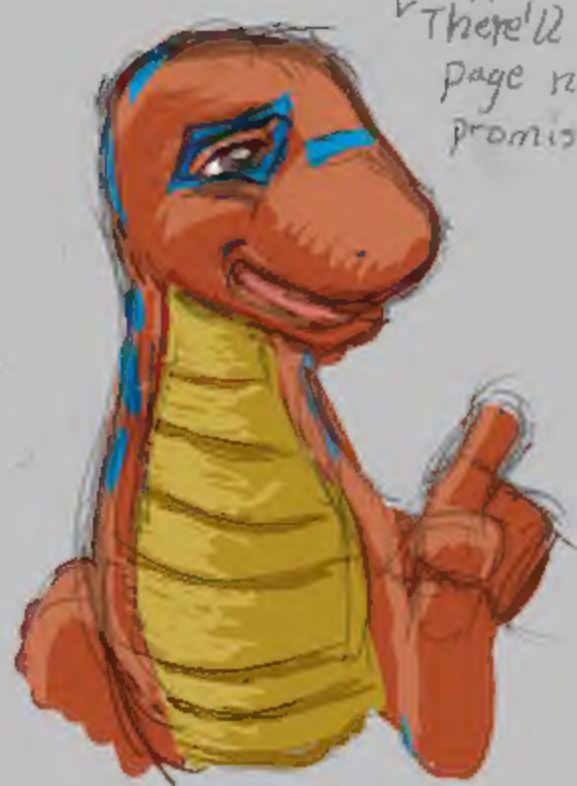

Hex!

9 Volt want nextpage. Stopdraw scorp-thing, drawpage.

Don't make me erase you.

BOOO!

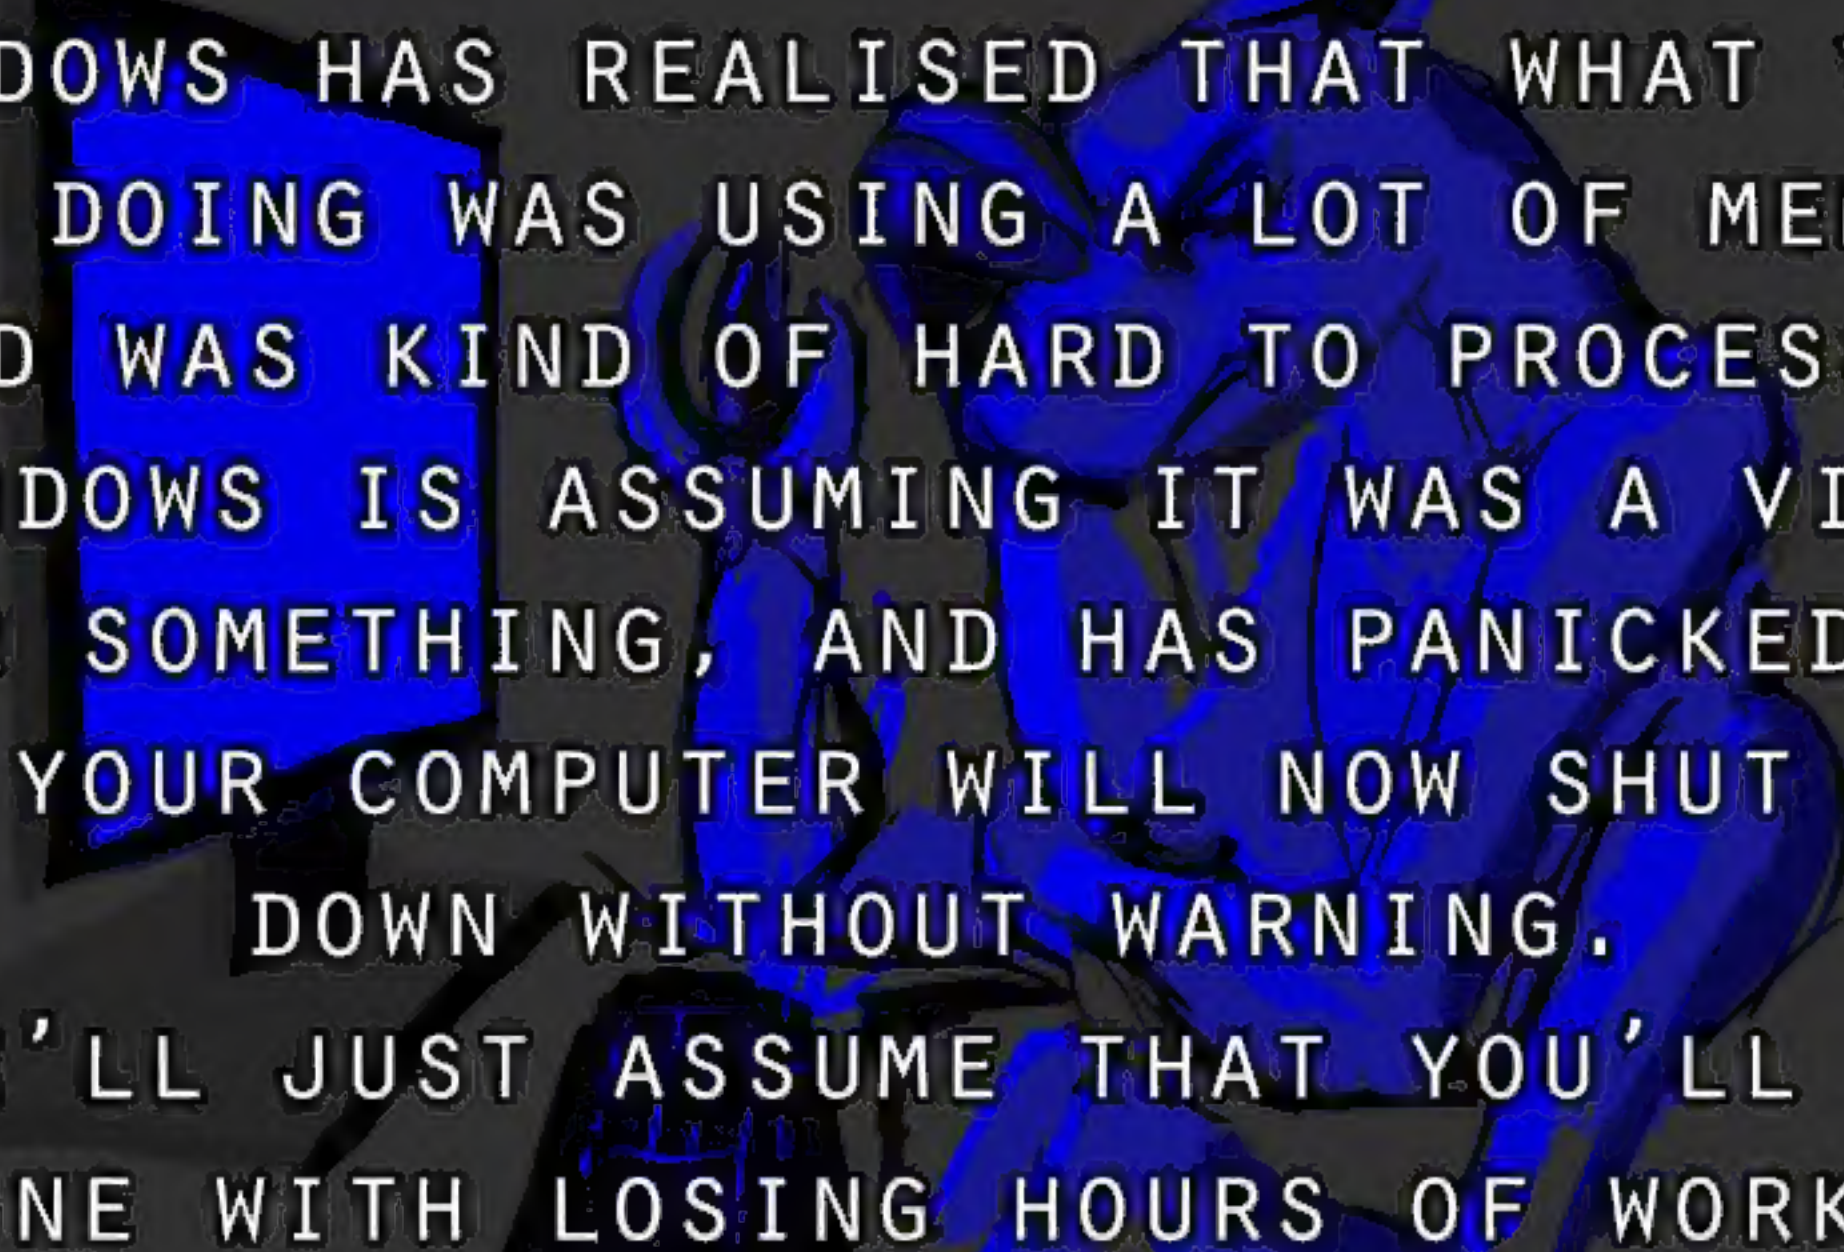

But, yeah anyway... There'll be a new page next week, promise. Tl;dr there...

Merry Christmas
(And happy all your other Holidays occurring around the winter solstice!)
and thanks for reading!

THE GREENING WARS

YOUR WEEKLY DOSE OF GENE-SPLICED MADNESS

Sorry, But no Greening Wars page this week. I've got it started, but not much more.

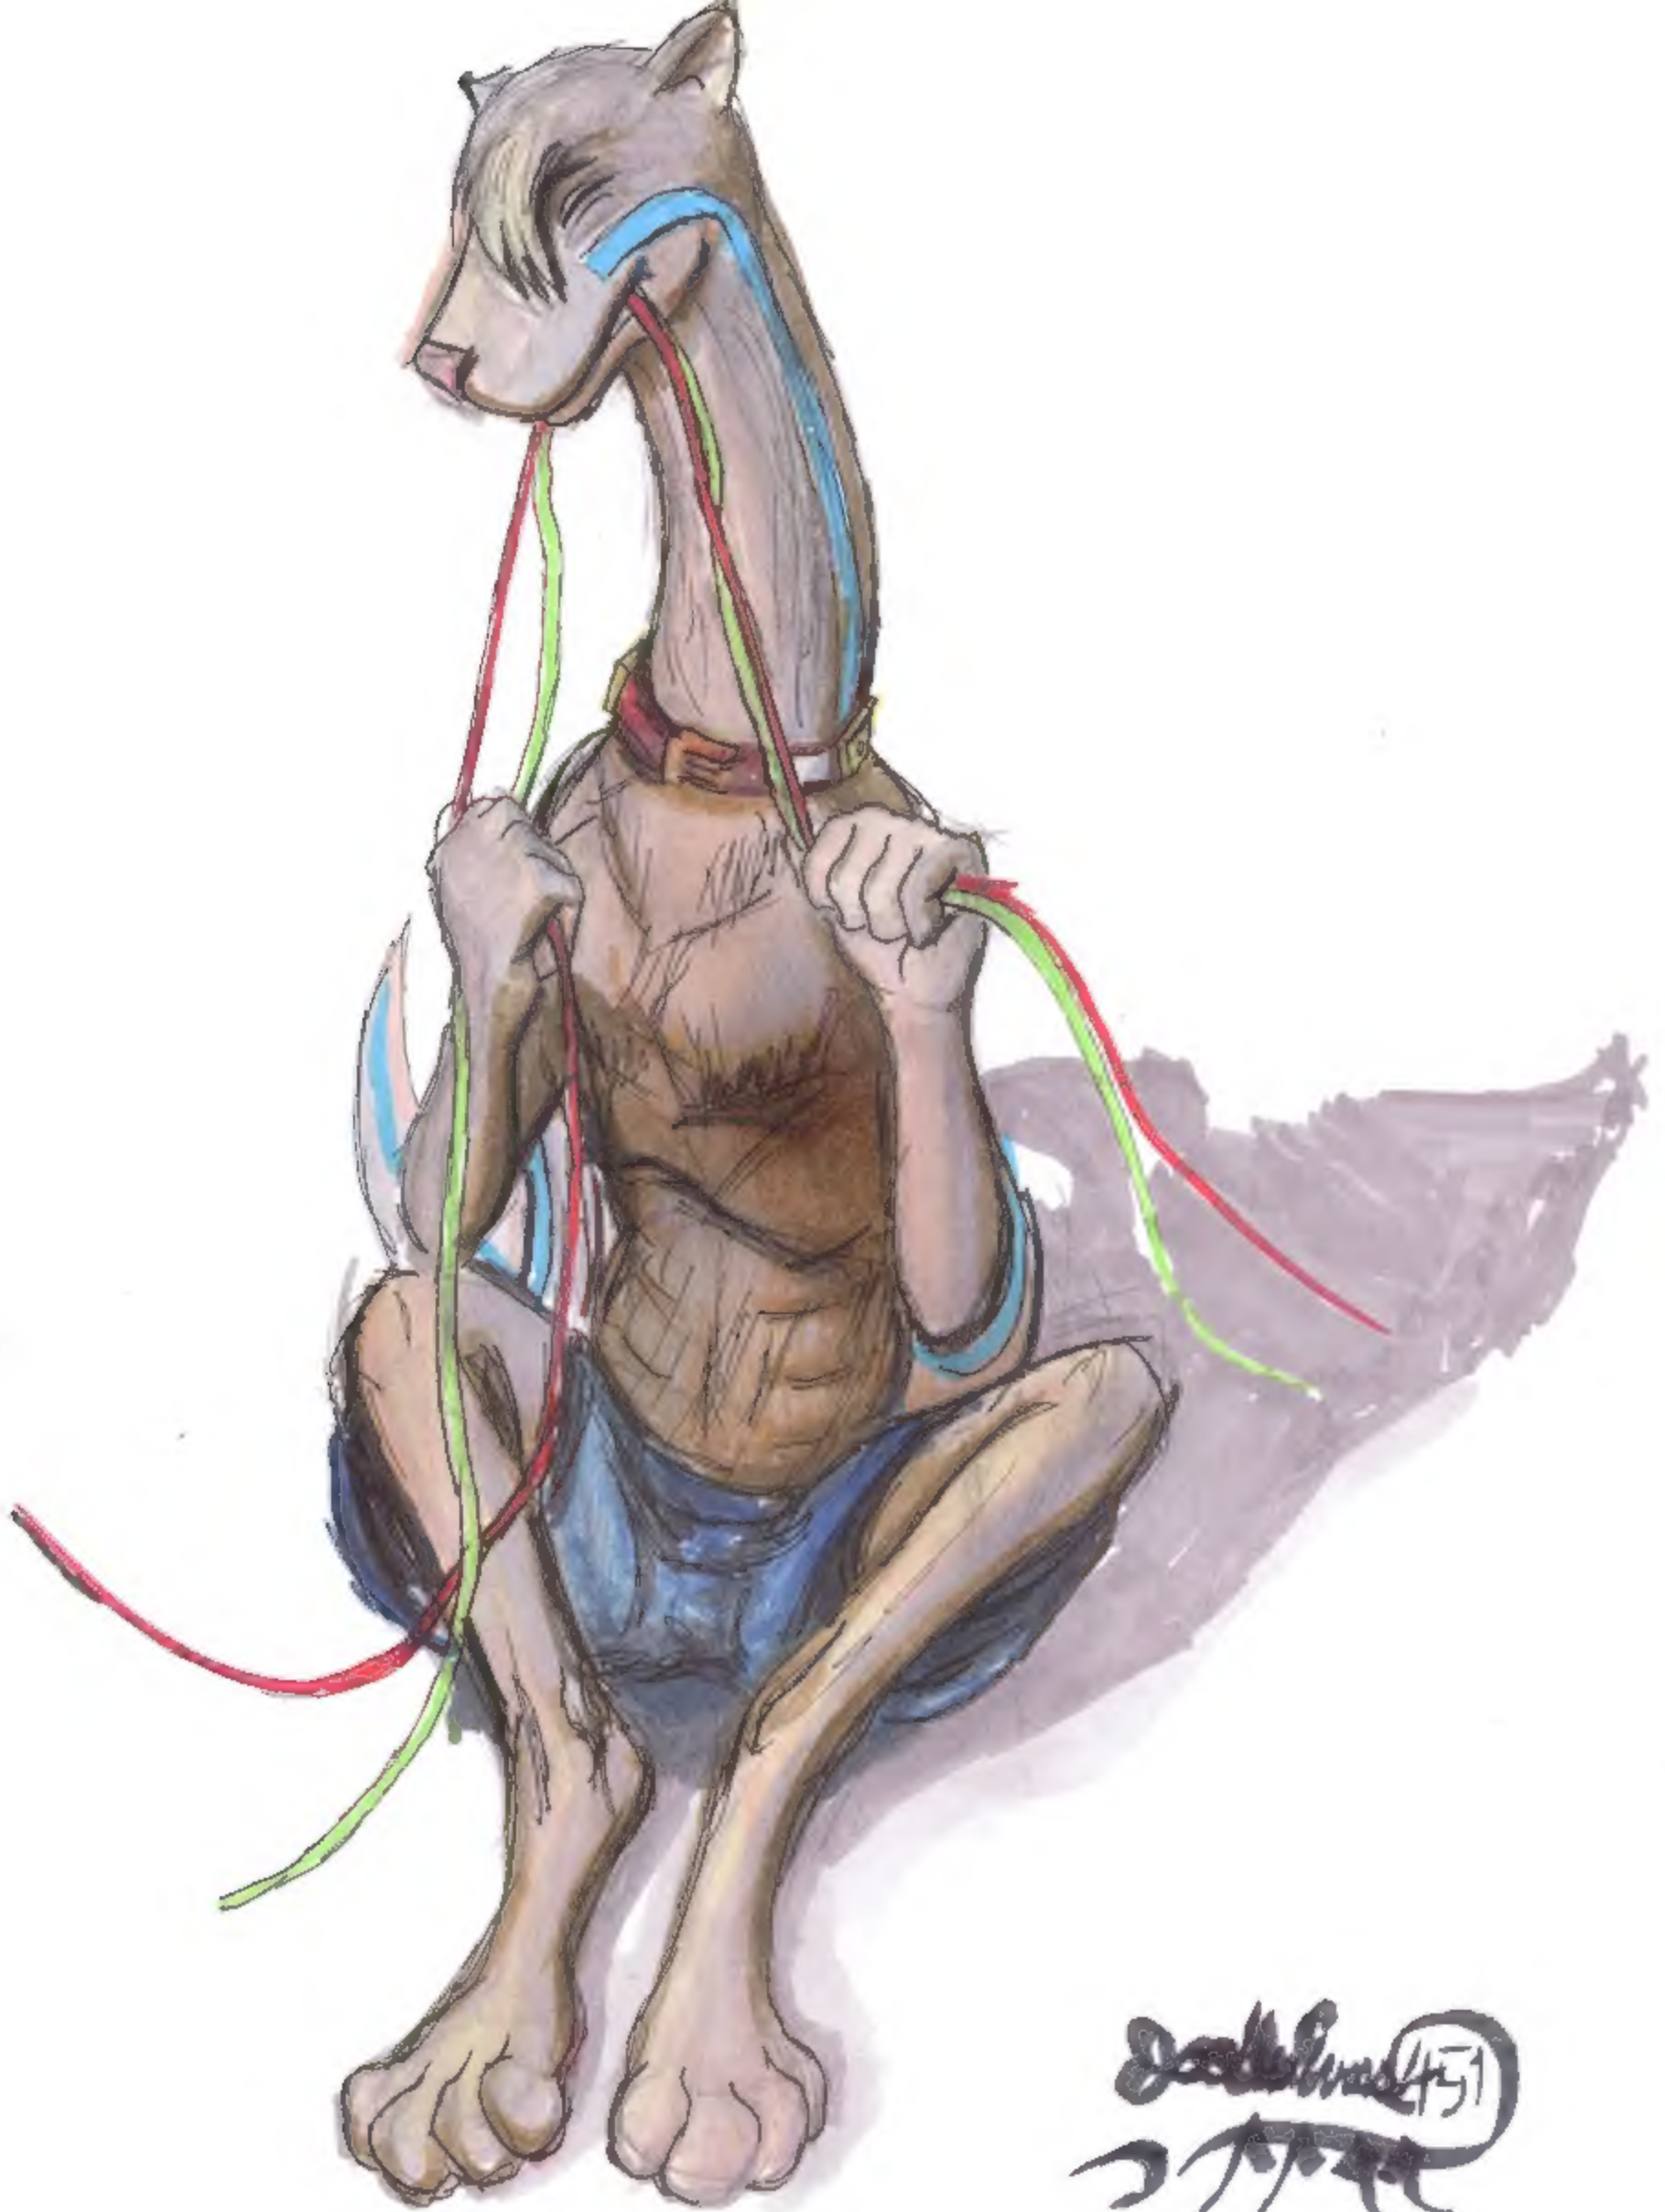

This weekend was crazy for me- A couple of friends roped me into working the ticketbooth at their cowboy convention.(They call it a "Cowboy gathering",but its basically "CowboyCon") XD

So I got a chance to break out my Duster Jacket and make some money at the same time. Both of which I like to do. It also meant that I spent the weekend NOT doing art much, unfortunately, hence this week's lack of a page. What I'm doing instead, is finally getting around to working on setting up my site for self-hosting TGW!

I'm going to continue mirroring on Drunk Duck as long as I still have readers here, because its where I got my start and I won't abandon DD just because they're going through some hard times- but I feel like I'm loosing readers because of the excessive advertising, continuing site code issues and the general bad image that DD has right now.

So its lots of tinkering with code for me this week.TGW will be back next week, hopefully in two places! ~ Scorp

PS- The site now has forums!
And happy Pi day Wednesday, 3/14!
